5 Week Male Course Introduction

Personal development, self-image and attitude shape our personality and capacity for success. Body Culture helps young people aged 12 to 25 tap into their potential by providing a 5-week program that helps participants Grow, Learn and Develop practical life skills not readily taught in schools. Topics covered in the program include communication, leadership, teamwork, career planning, creative thinking, personal grooming, exercise and much more.

The Grow, Learn & Develop Vision Communication and sharing ideas is the basis of the Grow-Learn-Develop philosophy. Body Culture provides participants with the skills to stay ahead and strive to be a stronger, more confident individual while facing the challenges of daily life.

Body Culture helps you to set goals and importantly, work towards achieving them.

Michelle & Cathy

Body Culture is the brainchild of Michelle Vescio and Cathy Vescio-Dibella who have spent many years working with young people and forging the Grow, Learn & Develop Philosophy.

Michelle Vescio (Salon Manager)

Working as a stylist with the Innovations salon for many years has earned Michelle a widespread reputation as an exciting hairdresser and valuable asset within her local community. Michelle has represented Indola Australia as winner of the 'Newcomer of the Year Award' in the United Kingdom. She continues to grow her interest in education as one of Indola's favourite guest speakers at training seminars, encouraging young and upcoming stylists to explore new and innovative ways to hone their skills.

Cathy Vescio-Dibella (Managing Director)

Cathy has operated the Innovation Hairdressing and Beauty Salon in the Melbourne suburb of Craigieburn since 1988 and has earned a reputation for being one of our leading hairstylists. Alongside Michelle Vescio, Cathy has led the Innovations team to success in the Hume Business of the Year awards for many years.

Working in the hair and beauty industry has been Cathy's personal GLD path, providing her with the opportunity to Grow Learn and Develop many relationships both professionally and personally with people from all walks of life.
